

No. 467/2022

28th November 2022

Dear Colleagues

POST OFFICE: PAY DISPUTE 2021/22 & 2022/23 – NOTICE SERVED FOR STRIKE ACTION (CROWNS/ADMIN) & ACTION SHORT OF A STRIKE (SUPPLY CHAIN)

Branches are advised the Postal Executive has today authorised strike action and action short of a strike for our Post Office members. The two-week legal notification has been served on Post Office today as follows:

Crowns & Admin - Strike Action

- 48 hours' strike action commencing at or after 06.00 on Monday 12th December 2022 and before 20.00 on Tuesday 13th December 2022.

Supply Chain - Action Short of a Strike

- Overtime and Scheduled Attendance ban for two weeks from Midnight on Monday 12th December until 23.59 on Saturday 24th December

The Union remains available for negotiations, either directly with Post Office or via Acas. Hopefully Post Office will agree to meaningful negotiations, which is evidently required to resolve this dispute.

It should be noted that the action described above has been discussed with our full-time IR Reps who fully support the strategy.

Further developments will be reported.

Yours sincerely

Andy Furey
Acting Deputy General Secretary (Postal)
