

No. 468/22

28th November 2022

TO: ALL POSTAL BRANCHES

Dear Colleague

CWU/RMG DISPUTES – MEMBERSHIP COMMUNICATION

All branches will be aware we wrote to the RMG CEO at the weekend seeking meaningful negotiations to resolve our current disputes. The CEO has now replied and refuses to discuss anything other than the RMG so-called “best and final” offer – showing no willingness to reach an agreement – other than on his terms.

Please find attached an important communication to members that we are asking you to urgently share across all workplaces.

The union will continue to press for serious negotiations and will expose the company’s position to the media.

In the meantime, it is the job of every Representative to prepare for this week’s strike action.

Yours sincerely

Dave Ward
General Secretary

Andy Furey
Acting Deputy General Secretary (Postal)
