

No. 273/24

8th August 2024

TO: ALL BRANCH SECRETARIES

Dear Colleagues,

CWU REVISED RULE BOOK – AUGUST 2024

Attached is a revised National rule book dated August 2024. This now replaces the previous version dated April 2024.

This new rule book incorporates amendments to national Rule 12 (Political Fund). These changes were endorsed by the NEC at a meeting on 17 July 2024 and have been given formal authority from the Certification Officers in London and Northern Ireland. The changes needed to be made due to both Certification Officers having moved. Rather than list the new addresses these have now been replaced by e-mail contacts namely info@certoffice.org and info@nicertoffice.org.uk respectively.

The amended rules are 12.11.6, 12.11.8, Rule 12 schedule 1.1 (notice to members) and Rule 12 schedule 1.3 (Request for exemption). In addition, the opportunity has also been taken to correct a typographical error in Rule 9.6.3 a.

This rule book is also available on the CWU website and can be found by clicking the following link:

Any enquiries regarding this LTB should be addressed to Angela Niven on telephone number 020 8971 7237, or email address sdgs@cwu.org.

Yours sincerely,

Dave Ward
General Secretary

Rule 1

Name

1. The name of the Union shall be the Communication Workers Union (CWU).
2. The name Communication Workers Union or the initials, or logo of the Union shall not be used in the title or description of any other organisation or publication without the authority of the National Executive Council (NEC).

Rule 2

Objectives

1. The objectives of the Union shall be:

1. To unite and organise all those entitled to be members. To protect and promote members' interests and maintain and improve their working lives;
2. To regulate the relations between members and their employers, and between members;
3. To secure the greatest possible measure of effective participation by the Union and its members in all decisions affecting their working lives as determined by these Rules;
4. To actively oppose all forms of discrimination based on race, creed, religion, age, political affiliation, disability, marital status, sex or sexual or gender orientation in industry, the Union and society in general. To this end the CWU shall actively oppose any organisation, political or otherwise, whose aims are racist or fascist;
5. To actively oppose all forms of sexual harassment;
6. To promote and encourage proportionality and fair representation of all members, in industry, the Union and society in general;
7. To actively identify any cause or barrier that prevents the Union being fully representative of its members. This shall include positive action in favour of women and race minorities until such time as the Union is satisfied that its structure reflects and supports the gender and racial balance of the members it represents;
8. To promote, organise and facilitate access to adult education to enable members to advance their skills for life;
9. To further these objects by political means, including, where appropriate by use of its Political Fund;
10. To affiliate to and participate in such organisations as General Conference or the NEC decide are in the interests of the members. NEC decisions shall be subject to ratification by the subsequent General Conference.

Rule 3

Membership

1. Membership

1. Union membership shall include:
 - a) All relevant persons in the wider communications, financial services, information technology and related industries and in all businesses where the Union has recognition;
 - b) Retired Members i.e. members who have formally retired who will have the right to retain membership of the branch with whom they completed the greater part of their service.
 - c) Officers of the Union and groups or persons as the NEC may, from time to time, determine.

2. Admission

1. Each applicant for membership shall complete an application form, which shall then be forwarded, normally by the Branch, to the Head Office of the Union.
2. Members applying for retired membership must submit their application form within 26 weeks of retiring.
3. Each completed application form shall contain a declaration signed by the applicant that they accept the conditions of membership.
4. The acceptance of an application for membership by the NEC shall confer upon each member all the rights and privileges of the Union. However, no member shall be entitled to retrospective benefits or services.

3. Appointment of Assurer for Membership Records

1. In accordance with section 24 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations Consolidation Act 1992 (TULRCA) the union is required to appoint an Independent Assurer to examine the membership records of CWU. The assurer shall not be removed from office except by a resolution passed at the Annual Conference of its members, or of delegates of its members.
2. The assurer duly appointed should assess the membership records of the CWU and shall be re-appointed as assurer for the following accounting period, unless a resolution has been passed at the Annual Conference of the Union appointing a different assurer, or the assurer has expressed that they shall not be re-appointed, or they have given notice to the Trade Union in writing of their unwillingness to be re-appointed, or they are ineligible for re-appointment, or they have ceased to act as an assurer by reasons of incapacity.

Rule 4

Members Entitlements and Obligations

1. Members of the Union are entitled to:

1. be treated with respect and courtesy by Union staff, officials and members;
2. seek local assistance and advice from their Branch on any work related problem and, where appropriate, to be represented by the Union before their employer and in agreed circumstances before external bodies;
3. have appropriate matters raised with the Union dealt with promptly and efficiently.
4. attend and take an active part in the Branch Annual General Meeting and all other appropriate membership meetings pertaining to their place of work;
5. stand for Union office in accordance with the Rules and Branch Constitution;
6. vote in all national and local elections in accordance with the Rules and Branch Constitution;
7. receive appropriate benefits and as negotiated by the Union either nationally or locally and appropriate legal services at the discretion of the NEC in accordance with published procedures;
8. apply for assistance from the National Welfare Fund and/or, where such exists, local Welfare Fund;
9. receive a copy of the Union journal;
10. receive a national certificate of recognition upon completion of twenty-five years continuous membership in accordance with published procedures;
11. receive a death benefit consisting of a payment to the spouse, next of kin, or other legal assignee, in the sum of £546 should the member die whilst in membership of the Union, and this to be increased each year on 1 October commencing in 1992 based on the average Retail Prices Index and Average Earnings Index, the averaged out increase to be applied, and it shall be the responsibility of the NEC that these provisions are implemented.

2. Members are obliged to:

1. treat Union staff, officials and members with respect and courtesy;
2. support and promote the Union's objectives;
3. promote the CWU's role in the workplace;

4. take an active part in the Union's decision making processes;
5. respect the Union's democratic processes and decisions;
6. inform the Union of changes to their membership details;
7. ensure their Union subscriptions are kept up to date.

3. Union Awards

1. Branch Honorary Membership

- a) This may be conferred upon ex-Branch members no longer eligible for full membership who have rendered distinguished service to the Branch.
- b) It may also be conferred upon a National Officer of the Union provided such an Officer has been a member of and rendered distinguished service to the Branch.
- c) To secure election as a Branch Honorary Member, the nominee must receive a majority of two-thirds of those voting at a Branch meeting.

2. Regional Honorary Membership

- a) This may be conferred upon ex-members no longer eligible for full membership who have rendered distinguished service within the Region.
- b) It may also be conferred upon a National Officer of the Union provided such an Officer has been a member of and rendered distinguished service to the Regional Committee.
- c) To secure election as a Regional Honorary Member, the nominee must receive a majority of two-thirds of those voting at a Regional Committee meeting.

3. National Honorary Membership

- a) This may be conferred upon ex-members no longer eligible for full membership or others who have not been eligible for full membership who have rendered distinguished service to the trade union movement at national level over a period of years.
- b) Nominations may be made by a Branch or the NEC not later than 31 December. Nominations must be approved by a two thirds majority of the NEC members present.
- c) The names of approved nominees shall be submitted to the subsequent General Conference for endorsement.

4. Union Gold Badge
 - a) A Branch may apply to the NEC for this award to a Branch member, enclosing the service record and supporting case.
 - b) The NEC at its absolute discretion may make an award in recognition of exceptional, long and/or meritorious service to the Union.
 - c) The NEC shall have the authority to award this to members of Head Office staff and honoured guests of the Union considered to have made a meritorious contribution to the well being of the trade union and labour movement either nationally or internationally.
5. These awards shall be governed by regulations issued by the NEC.

Rule 5

Structure

1. The Union shall consist of:

1. Members;
2. Branches;
3. Regional Committees;
4. Industrial co-ordinating structures;
5. NEC;
6. Industrial Executives;
7. Constituencies;
8. Officers and their staff.

Rule 6

Branches

1. General

1. The Union shall be divided into Branches constituted under the authority of the NEC and subject to the Branch Model Constitution. In exercising this authority the NEC shall have regard to the CWU Branch measures of success approved by the NEC, local circumstances, members' wishes and the requirement for an efficient, financially viable organisation.
2. The objectives of each Branch shall be to:
 - a) comply with the Branch Model Constitution and authorised variations;
 - b) locally organise, recruit and maximise membership levels;
 - c) protect and promote the interests of members in accordance with the Objectives and Rules;
 - d) keep members informed on local and national matters;
 - e) effectively consult members on local issues affecting their work;
 - f) implement the policies and directives of the NEC and its Industrial Executives.
3. Where a Branch fails to fulfil its obligations in respect of organising and recruiting in any area, business or business division, the NEC may, either directly or via the Industrial Executives, consider allocating organising and recruiting rights, together with any existing members, to an alternative Branch.

2. Branch Members

1. Each member shall belong to a Branch. In the event of any dispute the NEC shall determine the appropriate Branch.
2. Each member is entitled to representation. Where a conflict of interests arises, the Branch shall inform the NEC and seek representation to resolve the conflict.

3. Branch Constitution

1. All Branches shall operate according to the Model Branch Constitution that shall set minimum standards for every Branch. The NEC shall be responsible for publishing the Model Branch Constitution and ensuring its adherence. The Model Branch Constitution shall be mandatory.
2. The Branch Constitution may be varied subject to agreement by the Branch and approval of the NEC.

3. The Model Branch Constitution shall be subject to amendment by motion to General Conference. Any such motion shall require a two-thirds majority to be carried.

4. Branch Organisation

1. Each Branch shall hold an Annual General Meeting (AGM) by no later than 31 March of each year.
2. Each Branch shall elect not less than eight Branch Officers and eight other Branch Committee members. The Branch Officers are;
 - Chair
 - Secretary
 - Treasurer
 - Equality Officer
 - Women's Officer
 - BAME Officer
 - Young Workers Officer
 - Political Officer

Branch Officers should, where possible, not hold more than one of these posts at any one time and the Women's Officer shall be a woman. The Branch Committee (Officers and Lay members) shall fulfil the roles and responsibilities detailed in the Branch constitution.

3. Between AGM's each Branch shall hold regular Branch Committee or membership meetings for the effective governance of the Branch.
4. A Branch shall not instruct or permit any Branch Officer to act in a manner contrary to the Rules and Objectives or prevent them from acting in accordance with the Rules and Objectives of the Union.
5. Each Branch shall maintain accurate and up-to-date membership records.
6. Each Branch may affiliate to and participate in the appropriate local Trade Union Councils, Labour Parties and other organisations to which the Union is affiliated nationally. However, a Branch shall not support or participate in any other organisation without prior consent of the NEC.
7. Branches may communicate directly with other Branches of the Union, but shall not directly communicate with lay members of another Branch.
8. Branches are responsible for promoting the interests of their retired members and for engaging with their retired members to actively involve them in dealing with these issues, accordingly Branches shall establish a Retired Members section to ensure that the interests of their retired members are protected and promoted. The Retired Members section shall be entitled to elect a section committee which shall be responsible for engaging positively with members of the section to actively involve them in pursuing their interests and issues.

One position on the Branch committee will be reserved for a representative from the Retired Members section, elected by and from the members of that section. That individual shall be entitled to attend Branch committee meetings to ensure that retired member's issues are raised and discussed at this level. Such a representative shall not be entitled to vote on any industrial/occupational issues at these meetings.

5. Equality

1. Each Branch within its area shall ensure fair representation of all members, in terms of race, creed, religion, age, political affiliation, disability, marital status, sex or sexual or gender orientation.
2. Each Branch shall strive to ensure proportionality in Branch organisation and leadership.

6. Constituency Sections

1. Where a Branch has members in more than one Constituency, as defined in the Rules, it shall establish Constituency Sections.
2. A Constituency Section shall have autonomy to deal with matters specific to the members of the Section.
3. A Constituency Section shall be officered by a Secretary and Chair elected by and taken from its members. The Secretary of a Constituency shall, as a minimum, be an Assistant Secretary of the Branch.
4. A Branch must ensure that each Constituency Section is granted a fair share of Branch resources and, where applicable, facilities. All Constituency Sections have the right to be represented at Annual Conference.
5. At every session of the Union's Conference, upon the determination of occupational and constitutional issues, a Branch with Constituency Sections may, where a common Branch policy cannot be agreed, divide its votes, including card votes, on a Constituency basis.
6. Single Constituency Branches and Constituencies within a Branch shall have authority to form such business and divisional sections as are required to meet occupational needs.

7. Branch Mergers

1. The procedure to be followed when Branches wish to merge shall be as follows:
 - a) Branches shall notify each of their respective members of the intention to consider the matter at a specially convened meeting of the Branch;
 - b) Branches shall notify the General Secretary in writing of their intention;
 - c) The GS shall bring the matter to the attention of the NEC, which shall at its discretion authorise the following merger procedure to commence:

- i) Branches shall hold, in each Branch wishing to merge, an individual membership ballot on the question. All members of the Branches concerned shall be notified of the ballot, and timetable governing it, and shall be given the opportunity to vote;
- ii) The merger shall proceed if a majority of those participating in each Branch ballot vote in favour.

8. Branch Finance

1. The Branch financial year shall be from 1 January to 31 December. Each Branch shall prepare annual balances, including a bank statement certifying the balance in hand of every account held by the Branch, which shall be submitted to CWU HQ Finance Department by no later than 28 February each year, unless CWU HQ gives notice of an alternative date. All financial vouchers shall be retained for at least two years from the date of the year-end concerned. Statements of account, bank statements and balance sheets shall be retained for at least seven years.
2. Every year each Branch shall produce a financial plan for the following year, which shall:
 - a) be agreed by the Branch Committee, published to members and lodged as a record at CWU HQ Finance Department;
 - b) show expected income based on membership figures at the time the plan is agreed by the Branch;
 - c) include detailed planned expenditure, following the principle that such expenditure shall not exceed income;
 - d) allocate sufficient funds to cover the provision of childcare costs where activists attend CWU meetings, training events, briefings etc.
 - e) allocate sufficient funds to ensure Branch representation and participation at Equality conferences and events.
 - f) identify the purpose of any annual surplus and the intention to use it on behalf of the members;
 - g) be reported on, against performance to date, to each Branch Committee meeting.
3. Separate and distinct accounts shall be kept for each scheme or fund for which the Branch is responsible e.g. General Account, Savings Account, Welfare Fund, Political Fund, etc.
4. Each Branch shall keep proper accounting records compatible with CWU HQ Finance Department systems.
5. Each Branch shall maintain a register of property and equipment showing cost and date of purchase, and retain all receipts for such until disposal of the property or equipment. All property purchased through the use of membership subscriptions shall remain the property of the CWU.

6. At least two signatures shall be required for withdrawals from any account held in the Branch name.
7. A current statement of Branch accounts, including all relevant books and supporting vouchers, shall be presented for inspection and approval at each Branch Committee meeting and shall then be signed by the Branch Chair and Secretary.
8. Branch Auditors
 - a) The Branch AGM shall elect two Branch Auditors who shall not be Branch Officers or Branch Committee members. Their names shall be circulated to members and notified to CWU HQ Finance Department upon their election.
 - b) The Auditors shall examine and audit all Branch Accounts to ensure accuracy and shall have the right to examine and question the Branch Finances, financial policy, income and expenditure on behalf of the lay membership. All vouchers, receipts, bank statements, documents, accounts books, remittance forms and ledgers shall be examined to verify accuracy or otherwise. Auditors shall also verify all cash at the bank and shall satisfy themselves that all Branch income and expenditure is accounted for.
 - c) The Branch Auditors shall produce a signed statement to Branch members and copy it to CWU HQ Finance Department declaring they have executed their responsibilities.
9. CWU HQ Finance Department, on the advice of the CWU national chartered accountants, shall be responsible for and fund the annual auditing of as many Branch accounts as is deemed necessary.
10. Branches shall not use chartered accountants unless authorised in writing by the SDGS; such accountants shall be appointed by CWU HQ Finance Department.
11. The SDGS or appointed representative shall have the right to examine, on demand, all records of accounts and bank statements and attend Branch meetings to take part in any debate or discussion on the Branch Accounts.
12. To ensure reimbursement Branch claims due to be met by CWU HQ must be forwarded within 3 months of the activity. CWU HQ shall notify all Branches of the year-end cut-off date for such claims.
13. Each Branch may allocate up to 5% of rebate income for the remuneration of their officials. The individual amounts to be paid shall be determined by the AGM.
14. Each Branch may establish a Welfare Fund by the transfer of not more than 5% of rebate income in each year. The Fund shall be used for giving financial and/or other assistance to members in appropriate circumstances. A Welfare Fund shall be administered by Trustees elected at the AGM in accordance with Regulations approved by the NEC.

15. When a Branch is closed all funds and financial documents shall be forwarded to the SDGS. All assets shall become the property of CWU HQ administered by the SDGS and no party shall have any claim on them unless determined by the NEC.
16. Each Branch shall make provision in its constitution to ensure compliance with these Rules.

Rule 7

Regional Structure

1. Regional Committees

1. There shall be 10 Regional Committees established. Regional Committee areas, and the allocation of Branches to them, shall be determined by General Conference. (Where the NEC and the Branches concerned agree, changes may be made without reference to General Conference. Where agreement cannot be reached a report shall be made to General Conference). The CWU Regional Structure will be subject to review by the NEC.
2. Each region will submit a Biennial Regional Development plan to the NEC. The plan will be submitted within 3 months of the start of the term of office.
3. Objectives

The objectives of the Regional Structures shall be:

- To work under the direction of the NEC and oversee all non-industrial work within the Region.
 - To support the development of the union's work within the wider trade union movement, including building stronger links to TUC Regional Structures.
 - To support the development of the union's political work, including building stronger links with the relevant Labour Party structures.
 - To support the development and delivery of the union's Organising and Recruitment Strategy.
 - To support the development and delivery of the union's Education, Learning and Training Strategy.
 - To support and oversee the work of our Branches and implement strategies such as the CWU measures of success.
 - To develop Regional priorities and campaigns that support the general strategies of the union.
 - To support the development of the union's Communications and Engagement Strategy.
4. Regional Committee Constitutions
 1. Regional Committees shall adopt and operate the Model Constitution approved by the NEC.
 2. The Constitution of Regional Committees shall be subject to review and approval by the NEC from time to time as may be requisite and no Regional Committee shall amend or alter any terms of its Constitution without the approval of the NEC. No Regional Committee may adopt any or standing order at variance with the Constitution approved by the NEC or at variance with these Rules.

5. Authority and Functions

1. The authority and functions of Regional Committees shall be incorporated within the Constitution of the Regional Committees.
2. Regional Committees may only exercise such powers, perform such functions and discharge such duties as may from time to time be delegated to them or each of them by the NEC or General Conference.
3. Regional Committees shall not instruct, authorise or permit an Officer of the Regional Committee to do any act which is contrary to these Rules, or to refrain from doing any act which he/she is required under the Rules to perform.
4. No Regional Committee shall have read to it any unauthorised circular or address relating to the conduct of the Union or its business or to the conduct of its Officers or members.
5. A Regional Committee shall on receipt of an unauthorised circular or address send both the envelope and the circular to the General Secretary immediately.
6. Regional Committees will have an entitlement to submit items for General and Rules Revision Conferences.

6. Regional Committee Officers

1. The Principal Officers of the Regional Committee shall be the Chair, Secretary, Assistant Secretary and Financial Secretary. At least 2 of these positions should be held by women and no single individual can hold more than one of these positions at any one time.
2. The duties of the Regional Officers shall be detailed within the Regional Committee Constitution.

7. Regional Executive Committee

There will be within each CWU Region a Regional Executive Committee who will oversee the work of the Region in between full Regional Committee meetings.

The Regional Executive Committee will meet 4 times per year in between full Regional Committee meetings.

The CWU Regional Executive Committee will comprise of the following elected representatives:

Regional Secretary
Regional Assistant Secretary
Regional Chair
Regional Financial Secretary
Regional Political Officer
Regional Lead – Women

Regional Lead – BAME
Regional Lead – LGBT+
Regional Lead – Disability

The Regional Executive Committee will also comprise of the following ex-Officio members:

Regional, Territorial and Field Industrial Leads Designated NEC Member

8. Election Procedures

All elections for the Principal Regional Committee Officer positions and the Regional Executive Committee positions will be elected by Branches within the Regions on a one union basis.

The election for the Regional Secretary will be on an individual member ballot of all members in the Region. The election period will be for two years. The successful candidate shall be the individual who receives the highest number of votes cast.

Elections for the Regional Chair, Assistant Secretary, Financial Secretary and all Executive Committee positions will be conducted at the Regional AGM. The Regional Secretary will be the returning officer for these elections. All Branches shall be eligible to vote and will be allocated to vote in accordance with their membership size at the time of the elections. The successful candidate(s) will be the individual(s) who receive the highest number of votes cast.

9 Meetings

1. Regional Committee meeting shall meet 4 times a year. One of the Regional meetings will be a Regional Conference. Branch attendance at Regional meetings will be mandatory.
2. Decisions taken at all Regional meetings will be by a simple majority.

10. Composition

1. The Regional Committee shall be composed of Regional Chair, Regional Secretary, Regional Financial Secretary, Assistant Regional Secretary, Regional Executive Committee members and delegates from Branches (the delegation strength of each Branch shall be detailed in each Regional Committee Constitution).

11. Conferences

1. Regional Secretaries when they are not Branch delegates shall attend General Conference and Industrial Conferences in an ex-officio capacity having the right to speak but not vote.

2. They may participate in the discussion at General Conference or Industrial Conferences on the specific request of their Regional Committee or of a Branch within that Committee.

12. Financial Arrangements

1. Regional Committees will receive 2% of Branch rebate which will be paid direct into the Regional Fund.

The Regional Fund will be distributed on the basis of a bidding system based on clear plans and clear measurable outputs.

When attending meetings the Principal Regional Officers and members of the Regional Executive Committee will be entitled to travel and subsistence to be paid from the Regional Fund.

2. Regional Sub Committees

1. There shall be 6 Regional Sub Committees:

Regional Sub Committees shall adopt and operate the Regional Sub Committee constitution approved by the NEC.

Rule 8

National Organisation

1. National Executive Council (NEC)

1. There shall be a NEC responsible for:
 - a) implementing the decisions of General and Special General Conferences;
 - b) the general management and control of the Union between Annual/Special Conferences during which periods it shall have supreme authority on all issues except those which are within the remit of the Industrial Executives;
 - c) the allocation of each member to one of the Constituencies, which shall be defined by both industry and grade, but where common grading systems exist, duties and industry shall be the criteria for allocation;
 - d) varying the composition of the Constituencies. Any such change requiring the support of two-thirds of the NEC including a simple majority within each of the Constituencies.
2. All members of the National Executive Council will be treated equally assuming equal status and responsibilities on the NEC (except the Retired Members Sector NEC representative as outlined in these Rules).
3. The NEC shall comprise 24 members:
 - a) President and Vice President, but their inclusion shall not increase the numbers from their originating Constituencies.
 - b) 10 lay members elected biennially by and from the Postal Constituency and 1 of whom shall be the Chair of the Postal Constituency. All of whom shall automatically be members of the Postal Industrial Executive. At least 2 lay members must be women. At least 1 lay member must be BAME.
 - c) 7 lay members elected biennially by and from the Telecom and Financial Services Constituency and 1 of whom shall be the Chair of the TFS Constituency. All of whom shall automatically be members of the Telecoms and Financial Services Industrial Executive. At least 2 lay members must be women. At least 1 lay member must be BAME.
 - d) 2 lay Young Workers members elected biennially who must be 29 or under at the time of the election. 1 of whom will be elected by and from the Postal Constituency and 1 of whom shall be elected by and from the Telecoms and Financial Services Constituency.
 - e) 1 lay Retired Member elected biennially by all members of the retired sector.

The Retired Members NEC representative shall not be entitled to vote on issues that are Financial, Rule, Constitutional or issues that could be considered to have an industrial context except where they apply only to Retired Members.

- f) 4 lay Equality members elected biennially by all members of union except the Retired Members for each of the following equality strands;

Women
LGBT+ BAME
Disability

4. In order to ensure equitable distribution of resources within the Union the annual budget shall require a two thirds majority of the lay NEC members.
5. The NEC shall be responsible for allocating resources to sustain industrial action authorised in accordance with the Rules.
6. All decisions of the NEC shall be binding on all members of the NEC based on the general principle of collective responsibility.
7. The NEC shall convene policy forums as appropriate on matters relevant to the business of the NEC. Regulations for such policy forums shall be determined by the NEC. A policy forum may be called by the NEC or at the request of Branches representing not less than 40% of the membership. Requests from Branches must be the result of a decision taken at a properly constituted Branch meeting.
8. The NEC Retired Member shall in conjunction with and under the authority of the General Secretary and the NEC actively promote the recruitment of Retired Members within Branches.

The NEC shall provide a report to Branches prior to Annual Conference containing details of Retired Membership numbers increase or decrease during the prior financial period, together with a brief summation of national recruitment activity carried out within that period.

2. President and Vice President

1. The Union shall have a President and Vice-President. These offices shall rotate annually between the Chairs of each Industrial Executive.
2. The President shall Chair the NEC and preside at General/Special Conference. The Vice-President shall deputise for the President.
3. The President is the principle lay-official of the Union and shall be responsible for ensuring the Union acts in accordance with its Rules.
4. The President may intervene and rule on the inclusion of any motion before General/Special Conference deemed to be out with the Rules.

5. Where any ambiguity arises regarding the interpretation of the Union's rules, the President shall make a ruling. Subject to relevant standing orders, the President's ruling on any such matter shall be regarded as final.
6. The President shall be kept informed of any national discussions impinging upon the CWU's status as defined by the Rules.

3. Sub Committees

1. The NEC shall set up such committees as it considers necessary for the efficient governance of the Union. The structure and procedures of sub-committees shall be contained in regulations agreed by a two thirds majority of NEC members and shall be published to Branches.

2. Co-ordinating Organisation

The NEC shall be responsible for funding industry related co-ordinating machinery and for maintaining a coherent organisational structure subject to the full involvement of the Industrial Executives in determining and endorsing the operational arrangements.

4. Industrial Executives

1. There shall be: a Postal Executive; a Telecoms and Financial Services Executive.
2. Each Industrial Executive shall be responsible for:
 - a) implementing Industrial Conference decisions;
 - b) dealing with and implementing decisions on all occupational and conditions of service issues exclusively within its remit between Industrial Conferences;
 - c) ensuring appropriate organisation exists below national level to co-ordinate industrial activity;
 - d) ensuring the appointment/election of such Trustees to employee pension funds as required and shall seek endorsement by the appropriate Industrial Conference.
3. The Industrial Executives shall convene policy forums as appropriate. Regulations for policy forums shall be determined by the NEC.
4. The Industrial Executives shall be obliged to consult the membership affected by any major agreement. If a proposed major agreement concerning the terms and conditions of employment, including hours and pay, has not previously been approved by an Industry Conference, before such a proposed agreement is signed the Industrial Executive must consult the Branches or members concerned by either Branch or individual ballot, as appropriate, the result of which shall be binding on the Industrial Executive.

In the event of Branches or members deciding that a proposed agreement be rejected, the Industrial Executive shall, if it desires, place the matter before a Special Conference.

5. Industrial Executives may authorise industrial action in line with the Rules.

5. Postal Executive (PE)

1. The PE shall be responsible for occupational and conditions of service issues for all Postal and related employers where the Union is recognised and shall ensure appropriate business co-ordinating committees exist below national level in all Royal Mail and other postal businesses. Such organisation shall only be altered by decision of a Conference or ballot of the relevant membership.
2. Members of the PE shall deputise for the Assistant Secretaries Postal in their absence/unavailability in dealing with the employer within their remit.
3.
 - a) The PE shall consist of 14 lay members elected biennially by and taken from the Postal Constituency and 1 of whom shall be the Postal Constituency Chair, 10 shall be the NEC Postal Constituency Representatives, 4 shall be elected by and from the Postal Constituency;
 - b) The DGS(P) and the Assistant Secretaries who deal with postal issues, but without voting rights.
4. The Chair of the PE shall be elected biennially by and taken from members of the Postal Constituency by a simple majority of those members entitled to vote.
5. Any member of the Postal Constituency shall be eligible for nomination to the position of Chair.

 - a) All Conference expenses including subsistence, travel and loss of pay;
 - b) Regional and Industrial based Committee expenses including travel and subsistence;
 - c) Travel and subsistence for all education courses;
 - d) Travel and subsistence for national briefings;
 - e) Visits to HQ requested by the Branch
2. From 1 September 2024 each Branch shall receive a rebate for its Retired Members Section of 23% of all income received by CWU HQ from the contribution of the Branch Retired Members. Such rebates shall only be paid to the Branch on formation of a Retired Members Section.
3. Any Branch that has in excess of 12 months equivalent rebate in its bank balance shall have future rebates held centrally in a separate national account set up for that sole purpose. From May 2019, 70% of the funds held in the account will be returned to the CWU General Fund. The remaining 30% of the funds held in the account on this date will be placed in a fund that any Branch or Region can request a grant from for any specific project, campaigns or for assistance due to lack of funds by making an appropriate case to the SDGS. All future withheld rebates will be dealt with in accordance with the above principle.

7. Financial Planning

Every year the NEC shall produce a financial plan for the following year, which shall:

- a) be published to branches and lodged as a record at CWU HQ Finance Department;
- b) show expected income based on membership figures at the time the plan is agreed by the NEC;
- c) include detailed planned expenditure, following the principle that such expenditure shall not exceed income;
- d) identify the purpose of any annual surplus and the intention to use it on behalf of the members;
- e) identify allocations to budget holders and to be reported on, against performance to date, quarterly to branches.

Rule 12

Political Fund

1. The objects of the Communication Workers Union shall include the furtherance of the political objects to which section 72 of the amended Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 (the Act) applies. These objects are:-

1. The expenditure of money -

- (a) on any contribution to the funds of, or on the payment of expenses incurred directly or indirectly by, a political party;
- (b) on the provision of any service or property for use by or on behalf of any political party;
- (c) in connection with the registration of electors, the candidature of any person, the selection of any candidate or the holding of any ballot by the union in connection with any election to a political office;
- (d) on the maintenance of any holder of a political office;
- (e) on the holding of any conference or meeting by or on behalf of a political party or of any other meeting the main purpose of which is the transaction of business in connection with a political party;
- (f) on the production, publication or distribution of any literature, document, film, sound recording or advertisement the main purpose of which is to persuade people to vote for a political party or candidate or to persuade them not to vote for a political party or candidate.

2. Where a person attends a conference or meeting as a delegate or otherwise as a participator in the proceedings, any expenditure incurred in connection with his attendance as such shall, for the purposes of paragraph (e) above, be taken to be expenditure incurred on the holding of the conference or meeting.

3. In determining, for the purposes of paragraphs (a) to (f) above, whether the trade union has incurred expenditure of a kind mentioned in those paragraphs no account shall be taken of the ordinary administrative expenses of the union

4. In these objects -

"candidate" means a candidate for election to a political office and includes a prospective candidate;

"contribution", in relation to the funds of a political party, includes any fee payable for affiliation to, or membership of, the party and any loan made to the party;

"electors" means electors at any election to a political office;

"film" includes any record, however made, of a sequence of visual images, which is capable of being used as a means of showing that sequence as a moving picture;

"local authority" means a local authority within the meaning of section 270 of the Local Government Act 1972 or section 235 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973; and

"political office" means the office of member of Parliament, member of the European Parliament or member of a local authority or any position within a political party.

2. Any payments in the furtherance of such political objects shall be made out of a separate fund of the union (hereinafter called the political fund).
 1. The NEC shall appoint 4 Trustees of the Political Fund. Each Constituency shall be represented. The Trustees shall act in accordance with the directions of the NEC.
3. The particular rules which apply to those people that joined the Union before 1 March 2018 and to political funds set up before 1 March 2018 are set out in Schedule 1 to these rules.
4. The particular rules which apply to those people that joined the Union on or after 1 March 2018 and to political funds set up on or after 1 March 2018 are set out in Schedule 2 to these rules.
5. For the purpose of enabling each member of the union who may pay a political contribution to know in respect of any such contribution, what portion, if any, of the sum payable by him is a contribution to the political fund of the union, it is hereby provided that 20p of each weekly contribution is a contribution to the political fund, and that any member who is exempt shall be relieved from the payment of the sum of 20p and shall pay the remainder of such contribution only.
 1. The NEC shall have power to increase the amount of the levy having regard to increases in the Retail Price and Average Earnings Indices and the level of Union contributions generally. Any such increase shall be endorsed by Annual Conference.
6. A member who is exempt from the obligation to contribute to the political fund of the union shall not be excluded from any benefits of the union, or placed in any respect either directly or indirectly under any disability or disadvantage as compared with other members of the union (except in relation to the control or management of the political fund) by reason of his being so exempt.
7. If any member alleges that he is aggrieved by a breach of any of these rules for the political fund, being a rule or rules made pursuant to section 82 of the 1992 Act, he may complain to the Certification Officer, and the Certification Officer, after making such enquiries as he thinks fit and after giving the complainant and the union an opportunity of being heard, may, if he considers that such a breach has been committed, make such order for remedying the breach as he thinks just in the circumstances. Any such order of the Certification Officer may, subject to the right of appeal provided by section 95 of the 1992 Act, be enforced in the manner provided for in section 82(4) of the 1992 Act.

8. Contribution to the political fund of the union shall not be made a condition for admission to the union.

1. All members of the Union, in whatever category, shall have a right to pay contributions to the Political Fund.

9. The union shall include in the annual return that is submitted to the Certification Officer details of political expenditure as required by section 32ZB of the 1992 Act.

10. The union shall ensure that a copy of the political fund rules is available, free of charge, to any member of the union who requests a copy.

11. Northern Ireland Members

1. In compliance with Article 59 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, members of Branches in Northern Ireland are not required to make any contribution to the Political Fund unless they:

a) have given notice in writing of their willingness to contribute to the fund;

and

b) have not notified the Union in writing of withdrawal of such notice.

2. Northern Ireland members are exempt from contributing to the Political Fund unless they give written notice that they wish to do so. A form of notice indicating the wish to contribute to the Political Fund may be obtained from any Branch in Northern Ireland.

3. The Executive Committee shall give effect to the statutory exemption of Northern Ireland members to contribute to the Political Fund of the Union by making a separate levy on contributions to that fund from those Northern Ireland members who have provided written consent of their willingness to contribute, namely, the sum of 20p per week, and have not subsequently withdrawn that consent. No moneys of the Union other than the amount raised by such separate levy shall be paid into the Political Fund.

4. Northern Ireland members who are statutorily exempt from the obligation to contribute to the Political Fund of the Union shall not be excluded from any benefits of the Union, or placed in any respect either directly or indirectly under any disability or disadvantage as compared with other members of the Union (except in relation to the control or management of the political fund) by reason of their being exempt.

5. Contribution to the Political Fund of the Union shall not be made a condition for admission to the Union.

6. If any Northern Ireland member alleges that he/she is aggrieved by a breach of any of the rules made pursuant to Article 59 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 he may complain to the Northern Ireland Certification Officer, by emailing info@nicertoffice.org.uk , under Article 57(2) to (4) of that Order.

7. If, after giving the complainant and a representative of the Union an opportunity to be heard, the Certification Officer considers that a breach has been committed, he may make an order for remedying it as he thinks just in the circumstances. Under Article 69 of the 1995 Order an appeal against any decision of the Certification Officer may be made to the Court of Appeal on a question of law.
8. Additionally, if any Northern Ireland member alleges that he/she is aggrieved by a breach of the Political Fund rules made pursuant to Section 82 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 he/she may complain to the GB Certification Officer, by emailing info@certoffice.org. If, after giving the complainant and a representative of the union an opportunity of being heard, the GB Certification Officer considers that a breach has been committed, he/she may make an order for remedying it as he/she thinks just in the circumstances. Any such order of the GB Certification Officer is subject to the right of appeal provided for by Section 82(4) of the 1992 Act.

12. Grants and Rebates

1. Branches shall be allowed grants from the Political Fund of a sum up to but not exceeding that which is equal to one third of the annual contribution to the Political Fund of the Union per member per year of the Branch political membership. To protect the political Fund of the Union such rebates shall only be used to further the political objects of the Union and the expenditure of money shall only be made by the Branch in accordance with Branch bye-laws as determined by the NEC. As a condition of receiving such rebates, Branches shall make such returns and reports as the NEC may determine, provide an annual statement of Branch political accounts and affiliate to Constituency Labour Parties. The condition to affiliate to Constituency Labour Parties shall not extend to Branches in Northern Ireland.
2. Payments from the Political Fund to Branches must be in accordance with the policy determined by General Conference or the NEC.
3. Each Regional Political Fund will receive 20% of the total Political Fund rebate available to Branches to allow these committees to campaign regionally to promote Union policies on a fair and equitable basis.

13. Labour Party Conference

The NEC shall issue regulations prescribing the procedures for the elections of delegates to the Labour Party Conferences.

14. Labour Party NEC

The CWU nomination for the Labour Party NEC shall be voted on under regulations issued by the NEC.

15. Annual Political Forum

There shall be an annual meeting of all Regional and Branch political officers to discuss the promulgation of Union policy within the Labour Party.

Schedule 1

Rules that apply to members that joined the Union before 1 March 2018 and political funds set up before 1 March 2018.

Notice to members

1. As soon as is practicable after the passing of a resolution approving the furtherance of such political objects as an object of the union, it shall ensure that a notice in the following form is given to all members of the union.

Notice to Members

Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 (as amended)

A resolution approving the furtherance of political objects within the meaning of the above Act as an object of the union has been adopted by a ballot under the Act. Any payments in the furtherance of any of those objects will be made out of a separate fund, the political fund of the union.

Every member of the union has a right to be exempt from contributing to that fund. A form of exemption notice can be obtained by or on behalf of any member either by application at, or by post from, the head office or any branch office of the union or from the Certification Office for Trade Unions and Employers' Associations, by emailing info@certoffice.org

This form, when filled in, or a written request to the like effect, should be handed or sent to the General Secretary.

2. This notice shall be published to members by such methods as are used by the union to publish notices of importance to members. It is the union's current practice to publish such notices by: publishing in the Union's magazine, publishing on the union's website and publishing by branch circular (Letter To Branches)

Request for exemption

3. Any member of the union may at any time give notice a) on the form of exemption notice specified in rule 4, or b) written request in a form to the like effect, that he objects to contribute to the political fund. A form of Exemption Notice may be obtained by, or on behalf of, any member, either by application at, or by post from, the head office or any branch office of the union, or from the Certification Office for Trade Unions and Employers' Associations, by emailing info@certoffice.org

4. The form of an exemption notice shall be as follows:-

Name of Trade Union POLITICAL FUND EXEMPTION NOTICE I give notice that I object to contributing to the political fund of the union and am in consequence exempt, in the manner provided by Chapter VI of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992, from contributing to that fund. CWU Membership Number..... Print Name.....Signature: Address: Date:

5. Any member may obtain exemption from contributing to the political fund by sending a Notice of Exemption to the General Secretary or such other person as is identified in the Notice to Members in rule 1. On receiving the Notice of Exemption the union shall send an acknowledgement of its receipt to the member at the address in the notice, and shall process the exemption as soon as reasonably practicable.

Manner of giving effect to exemption

6. On giving an exemption notice, a member shall become exempt from contributing to the union's political fund, where the notice is given:-
- (a) Within one month of the giving of Notice to Members in rule 1 following the passing of a political resolution on a ballot held at a time when no such resolution is in force, as from the date on which the exemption notice is given; or
 - (b) In any other case, as from 1st January next after the exemption notice is given.
7. The union shall give effect to the exemption of members from contributing to the political fund of the union either:-
- (a) by a separate levy of contributions to that fund from the members who are not exempt; or
 - (b) by relieving members who are exempt from the payment of the whole or part of any periodical contributions required from members towards the expenses of the union.

Schedule 2

Rules that apply to people that joined the Union on or after 1 March 2018 and to political funds set up on or after 1 March 2018.

Opting in by union members to contribute to political funds

1. A member cannot be required to make a contribution to the political fund of the union unless they have given notice of their willingness to contribute to that fund (an “opt-in notice”).
2. A member of a trade union who has given an opt-in notice may withdraw that notice by giving notice to the union (a “withdrawal notice”).
3. A withdrawal notice takes effect at the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is given.
4. A member of a trade union may give an opt-in notice or a withdrawal notice:-
 - (a) by delivering the notice (either personally or by an authorised agent or by post) at the head office or a branch office of the union;
 - (b) by sending it by e-mail to the following email address: membership@cwu.org
 - (c) by completing an electronic form provided by the union which sets out the notice and sending it to the union by electronic means with instructions by the union.
 - (d) by any other electronic means prescribed under the 1992 Act (as inserted by the 2016 Act)

Information to members about opting in to the political fund

5. The union shall take all reasonable steps to secure that, not later than the end of the period of eight weeks beginning with the day on which the annual return of the union is sent to the Certification Officer, all the members of the union are notified of their right to give a withdrawal notice.
6. Such notification may be given:-
 - (a) by sending individual copies of it to members; or
 - (b) by any other means (whether by including the notification in a publication of the union or otherwise) which it is the practice of the union to use when information of general interest to all its members needs to be provided to them.
7. The notification may be included with the statement required to be given by section 32A of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.
8. A trade union shall send to the Certification Officer a copy of the notification which is provided to its members in pursuance of this section as soon as is reasonably practicable after it is so provided.

9. Where the same form of notification is not provided to all the members of the union, the union shall send to the Certification Officer a copy of each form of notification provided to any of them.
10. If any member alleges that he is aggrieved by a breach of any of these rules for giving information to members about opting into the political fund, being a rule or rules made pursuant to section 84A of the 1992 Act, he may complain to the Certification Officer. Where the Certification Officer is satisfied that the union has failed to comply with a requirement of section 84A of the 1992 Act the Officer may make such order for remedying the failure as he thinks just under the circumstances. Before deciding the matter the Certification Officer:-
 - (a) may make such enquiries as the Officer thinks fit;
 - (b) must give the union, and any member of the union who made a complaint to the Officer regarding the matter, an opportunity to make written representations; and
 - (c) may give the union, and any such member as is mentioned in clause (b), an opportunity to make oral representations.

Manner of giving effect to decision not to contribute to political fund

11. The union shall give effect to the members decision not to contribute to the political fund of the union either:-
 - (a) by a separate levy of contributions to that fund from the members who are contributors; or
 - (b) by relieving members who are not contributors from the payment of the appropriate portion of any periodical contribution required from members towards the expenses of the union.
12. Any form (including an electronic form) that a person has to complete in order to become a member of the union shall include:-
 - (a) a statement to the effect that the person may opt to be a contributor to the fund; and
 - (b) a statement setting to the effect that a person who chooses not to contribute to the political fund shall not, by reason of not contributing, be excluded from any benefits of the union or be placed in any respect either directly or indirectly under a disability or at a disadvantage as compared with other members of the union (except in relation to control of the political fund).

Rule 13

Industrial Action

1. The NEC shall be responsible for ensuring that the union is fully compliant with all relevant legislation governing Industrial Action.
2. The NEC, a Conference or a properly convened Branch Meeting may in furtherance of the Union's objectives decide to authorise, endorse, call or take industrial action, including strike action. All such action must be within the law and in accordance with, and in compliance of, all statutory obligations, inclusive of ballots etc. Where a Branch decides to take action to protect immediate local interests, the General Secretary and NEC must be informed.
3. For the avoidance of doubt it is confirmed that nothing contained in these Rules empowers a Branch or any other person, committee, group or body of persons to authorise, endorse, call or take industrial action without there being a statutory ballot and compliance in all other respects with the requirements of Part V of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 as amended or replaced from time to time.

Rule 14

Dispute Resolution

1. General

1. Matters of dispute arising from the rules or regulations of the Union affecting Union members shall be dealt with in accordance with this rule.
2. The purpose of this rule is to deal with all matters of potential dispute between members, with the aim of achieving settlements where disputes arise. This rule covers all aspects of union administration.
3. All potential disputes will be administered by the General Secretary's Department. The process will identify the nature of the potential dispute and will be subsequently classified as one of the following:
 - a) breakdown in relationships
 - b) breach of national rules

Potential disputes arising from the above will be dealt with the CWU Complaints Procedure or National Disputes Committee (NDC).

4. None of the above will be actioned in the event of a dispute being contemplated or in progress either via an internal employer procedure or an external body and has reached a conclusion.

2. CWU Complaints Procedure

1. All matters requiring consideration shall be dealt with by the General Secretary's Department in line with the appropriate byelaws.

3. National Dispute Committee (NDC)

1. All matters requiring consideration and/or investigation shall be administered by the General Secretary's Department.
2. The Committee shall be served by an Officer appointed by the General Secretary. The Committee shall consist of members of the NEC, which will be determined by the byelaws.

4. National Dispute Committee Powers and Procedures

1. All matters requiring consideration under this rule should be referred to the General Secretary's Department. Such matters may be referred by either a member or a Branch.
2. The NEC shall prescribe regulations governing the procedures for the conduct of all cases before the NDC and may amend such regulations from time to time. These amendments shall be subject to endorsement at a subsequent General Conference.

3. The NDC has the power to require the production of written evidence and attendance of witnesses who are members of the Union. In the event of non-production of written evidence or non-attendance by either of the parties involved, the Committee has the right to take decisions in their absence.
4. The NDC shall consider each dispute in line with the NDC byelaws and conclude whether or not the dispute is appropriate to be dealt with at a full hearing of the NDC.
5. Following the full hearing of the dispute, in the event the NDC conclude that there has been a breach of the national rules, the NEC may exercise one or more of the following powers.
 - a) censure the member concerned;
 - b) suspend the member from membership or from all or any benefits of membership for such time as may be determined;
 - c) remove the member from any CWU representative office;
 - d) disqualify the member from holding office for such a period as the NDC may determine;
 - e) impose a suspended sentence for so long as the NDC shall consider just and reasonable;
 - f) expel the member from the Union.
6. There shall be a right of appeal against decisions of the NDC to an Independent Appeal Panel. In all cases of appeal, the decision appealed against shall be suspended pending the hearing of the appeal. An appeal against a decision of the NDC can only be brought by the charged member.

5. Independent Appeals Panel (IAP)

1. The NEC shall prescribe byelaws governing the procedure for the conduct of all cases before the IAP and may amend such byelaws from time to time.
2. The IAP shall consist of 3 Independent members, one of which shall be the Chair.
3. The IAP shall be served by an Officer appointed by the General Secretary.
4. The decision of the IAP shall be final and binding on the appellant and the Union and concludes the internal process.

6. Functions of the General Secretary and the NDC Officer in Relation to potential disputes

1. The Officer to the NDC shall be responsible for the documentation of matters requiring consideration by the NDC and for recording the proceedings of the Committee.
2. The Officer to the NDC shall notify a member of their rights under the rules of the Union and the consequences of failure to comply with any direction issued, or any penalty imposed by the NDC. The Officer will notify the General Secretary of the final decision.

Rule 15

Alteration of Rules

1. Rules Revision Conference

1. Every 4 years the Union shall hold a Conference for the purpose of reviewing and revising its rules.
2. Each Branch of the Union and Regional Committee shall have the opportunity to submit 3 proposals relating to the rules.
3. The NEC shall be entitled to submit proposals relating to the rules.
4. Each proposal to amend the rules receiving a majority in support including a majority within each of the following;
 - a) the Postal Constituency
 - b) the Telecoms and Financial Services Constituency

shall then form part of the rules of the Union.

2. Special Rules Revision Conference

1. A Special Rules Revision Conference may be called by the NEC or at the request of Branches representing not less than 51% of the membership. Requests from Branches must be the result of a decision taken at a properly constituted Branch meeting.
2. The Standing Orders and procedures adopted for a Special Rules Revision Conference shall normally be in accord with those used for the Rules Revision Conference.

3. Annual Conference

1. In addition to Rules Revision Conferences there shall be provision at each General Conference of the Union for a Rules Revision session.
2. At each General Conference Rules Revision session each Branch and Regional Committee shall have the opportunity to submit 1 proposal relating to the rules.
3. At each General Conference Rules Revision session the NEC shall be entitled to submit proposal relating to the rules.
4. At each General Conference Rules Revision session each proposal to amend the rules receiving a two thirds majority in support, including a two thirds majority within each of the following;

- a) the Postal Constituency
- b) the Telecoms and Financial Services Constituency

shall then form part of the rules of the Union.

4. Role of the NEC

1. The NEC shall be empowered to amend the rules to deal with any inaccuracy or error or in order to comply with any Statute of the Realm or regulation made thereunder. The NEC shall also be empowered to make any consequential amendment to the rules required as a result of amendments carried at any Rules Revision session of Conference or at a Rules Revision Conference or a Special Rules Revision Conference.
2. The NEC shall be empowered to interpret the rules or to decide upon any issue in respect of which the rules are silent. The decision of the NEC on any such matter shall be final.
3. It shall be the duty of the General Secretary, upon receiving notice of a proposal on the amendment of these rules, to take suitable advice and report to the Standing Orders Committee, who shall ensure that such motions are placed before the Rules Revision Conference, Special Rules Revision Conference or General Conference Rules Revision session as the case may be, in such a form that the language and content clearly express the purpose of the motion and saving so far as the purpose of the motion otherwise requires, are in conformity with body of the rules and the principles incorporated therein.

5. Operative Date of Rule Amendments

Any alterations to rule carried at a Rules Revision Conference, Special Rules Revision Conference or General Conference Rules Revision session shall become operative immediately following the close of that conference.

6. Rule Book

Within 6 months of a Rules Revision Conference, Special Rules Revision Conference or General Conference Rules Revision session an updated Rule Book shall be produced and distributed to every Branch.

Rule 16

Amalgamation

1. The Union may amalgamate with, or transfer engagements to or from, any trade union as General/Special General Conference may determine, subject to the terms of the relevant legislation.
2. The NEC shall have the power to submit the question of amalgamation and Transfer of Engagements to a General/Special General Conference.
